

Course Description:

- The European Course in Minimally Invasive Neurological Therapy (ECMINT) teaches trainees all the elements of Intervention Neuroradiology in the specialty curriculum defined by the Neuroradiology subsection of the European Union of Medical Specialist (UEMS).
- This is the second of four courses which will make up the ECMINT teaching curriculum
- ECMINT 1.2 lecture theme

Treatment of Intracranial Aneurysms

- A structured program of lectures and tutorials
- Held in English, in a teaching environment dedicated to excellence in theoretical and practical teaching of current standards of Interventional Neuroradiology Techniques
- CME and UEMS credits applied for

ECMINT 1.2
24th-27th
June 2015

Course Organisation:

Dr S Renowden
Chairman, ESMINT Education Committee

Professor J Byrne
Course Director

Registration:

To register on this course please complete the online form at:

<http://www.esmint.eu/form/ecmint1-2>

You will then be sent instructions on how to complete your registration and pay the fee online.

Please email any questions to: Alison Clarke ONNRU@nds.ox.ac.uk.

Venue:

St Anne's College
Woodstock Road
Oxford
OX2 6HS

Registration Fee £710

includes:

- Course Fee
- Accommodation in College
- All meals during the Course

College accommodation is non-smoking

The course is facilitated by Oxford Neurovascular and Neuroradiology Research Unit

